PREFACE.

THE object of this work is to include in one GENERAL ALPHABETICAL LIST all those who have any definite position arising either—

- 1.—From Hereditary Rank—Peers (with all their children), and Baronets;
- 2.—From any recognised Title or Order conferred upon them by the Sovereign—Privy Councillors, Knights and Companions of the five British Orders, and Knights Bachelor;
- 3.—From their positions as Members of Parliament :
- 4.—From any of the higher grades of the legal, military, naval, clerical, colonial, or civil services of the State—Judges, Generals, Admirals, Surgeon-Generals, Inspectors-General of Hospitals and Fleets, all Bishops, Deans and Archdeacons (but only of England and Wales) and Governors of Colonies :
- 5.—And Deputy-Lieutenants and Magistrates for the Counties of England and Wales, Queen's Counsel, Serjeants-at-law, Presidents and Vice-Presidents of Learned Societies :
- 6.—AND THE PRINCIPAL LANDOWNERS BEING ALSO OCCUPIERS OF ONE OF THE CHIEF COUNTY SEATS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

The distinguishing feature of the book is that, from its ALPHABETICAL ARRANGEMENT, any one can at once ascertain from its pages whether there be any person bearing a particular title, and, if so, to what family he belongs, and his address.

As the book embraces so many classes, the space for each entry in it must be as brief as possible ; we are thus precluded from giving more than the most important services of each person whose name may be found in its pages.

As in the previous editions, the proof of every entry has been submitted to the person to whom it has reference (with the exception of those instances in which no address in the United Kingdom has been obtained), and the correctness of the work is thereby insured.

On page 40 the names of the members of the present Ministry will be found.

It is respectfully requested that any notices of alterations and any corrections may be forwarded to the Publishers.

The Letters S.O. and R.S.O. at the end of addresses in various parts of the book are abbreviations adopted by H.M. Post Office to represent Sub-Office and Railway Sub-Office, and if these Initial letters, with the name of the County, are added to the addresses of letters in lieu of the usual name of Post Town, the delivery of such letters will be accelerated.

PRECEDENCE AMONG LADIES.

The daughter of a peer does not lose her own rank should she marry a person not a peer; but if she marries a peer her title and precedence are merged in his, e.g., if the daughter of a duke marries a baron, she takes the rank of a baroness. But if the widow of a duke marries a baron, she retains her own rank of duchess. The widow of a peer or knight may retain her title notwithstanding her second marriage, but she does so only by courtesy. The widow of a baronet, however, enjoys her precedence for life by right. Official rank and precedence is not communicable to the wife, but the wife of the Viceroy of Ireland and of a lord mayor has precedence derived from her husband's office.
